Ratling Gunner

The multi-barrelled whirling death-dealing machine known as the Ratling Gun is a relatively modern invention. Nonetheless it has proven so successful that Clan Skryre simply cannot make enough to satisfy the greedy demands of the Warlord clans. Powered by warp steam and kicked into gear by the prodigious working of a hand crank, the six barrels of the Ratling Gun spin and whirl, emitting a fusillade of warp-laced bullets that streak through the air, leaving faint greenish traces.

The standard configuration of the Ratling Gun requires a weapon team of two Clanrats, but the weapons bought by Clan Fester for the assault on Ubersreik are of an experimental lightweight design, wielded by a single Stormvermin-sized specimen.
